

CAN YOU NAME THEM?

The Ten Commandments is the most important document in all of world history. And, as Zig Ziglar said, "I guess you noticed God did not call them the Ten Suggestions." See how many you can name within the next ten minutes....

Write out the Commandments. They do not have to be in order or word for word;

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____

How did you do? More than 95% of us (North American Adults and Teenagers) cannot name them all and only 65% can name 5, according to the American Rights Coalition. So, we may be lucky Moses was known to s-s-s-stutter, or we might have had even more than the Ten listed in Exodus 20! Nevertheless, most of us can probably name 10 brands of Beer, which is a sad commentary if you stop and think about it.

At any rate, we are all very fortunate too, that God did not add in any Baseball Rules, whereas 3 Strikes and we would all be Out!

PS: If, like the rest of us, you consider yourself to be a good person, you can confirm it by taking the little 8 question quiz at www.NeedGod.com
